Thanks to the Redmonds for their many years service to the community.

... and...

Hello from the new owners

As you may already be aware, as of today, The Store Menangle is under new management. We are incredibly excited about taking this local piece of history into the future.

Over the coming months we look forward to introducing some exciting new developments – more to follow on those soon. However, due to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, some of our existing services may temporarily experience delays. We apologise for any inconvenience this may cause and appreciate your patience during these times.

Our temporary opening hours - 8am-1pm Monday-Thursday, Friday 8am-5pm & Saturday 8am-2pm (these will increase in the coming weeks as our services become available)

Our team (including Katie, whose services we've been fortunate to retain) look forward to becoming a part of the Menangle/Menangle Park community.

See you soon.

Probus Club

Menangle district Probus Club is a club specially catering for retirees in our community. It joins clubs in United Kingdom, Australia and New Zealand designed for fellowship, friendship and fun for retirees. A large number of the members live in the Durham Green Village, but from retirees in the district area of Menangle and Menangle Park would be eligible to join – applications welcome. If interested, it is suggested that contact could be made with the President Marion Marriott (4633 9229) or Secretary John Currie (4633 9918).

Menangle Men's Shed Association

Men's Shed meets in the old Whiteman's Shed in Stevens Road, Menangle. We are a small group in a huge shed. We have made a good beginning with some generously donated items. The Men's Shed operates on Mondays from 9am till 12noon. New members are always welcome. Donations of good quality tools, timber and machines would be much appreciated. BLESSINGS

August has always been the best month of the year for me because not only does it contain my birthday, but I share my older sister's birthday as well – we are two years apart. This has the added bonus of sweetening every age because Kate is already two years older, so I am still young! It was almost as good as Christmas for our little sister, when we were growing up, as she received a present as well. Mum made us each a cake, and when we were a little bit grown up and allowed a choice, Kate would choose a fruit cake, and I would have a sponge cake with cream and strawberries.

But two years ago it became special in another way when our dear Mum died at the age of 89. Mum loved this prayer of St Francis, and like Francis she was most at home enjoying nature and her garden. She loved the daffodils which grew wild near her home in Tassie, and had a wonderful display in her garden. I brought some of the bulbs back, and am hoping next year they will have acclimatised. Last year they just grew leaves. This year they produced flowers which were not able to open. One more year!

In memory of my Mum –

The Peace Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi

“Make me a channel of your peace,
Where there is hatred let me bring your love,
Where there is injury your pardon Lord,
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace,
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope,
Where there is darkness, only light,
And where there's sadness, ever joy.

O Master grant that I may never seek,
So much to be consoled as to console,
To be understood as to understand,
To be loved as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace,
It is in pardoning, that we are pardoned,
In giving of ourselves that we receive,
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Blessings and love,

Sue Peacock

There is a forever fast I have called you to; it is a radical circumcision of your heart if you are willing. I will cauterise your taste buds to help you if you say, 'Yes'.

I have prepared an upheaval for you - a turning over of certain tables in your life. If you say yes, I will give you the strength and determination to resist the flesh-pleasing and time-wasting temptations you have long struggled with. I ask you to say yes with your eyes wide open, child, because this is holy, and wholly my work.

If you agree to this forever fast, I will cause a parade of activities, habits, pleasures and people to pass before your eyes. You will decide if you wish to break free or remain in covenant with each of them in turn. I do not pressure you, Susan. I love you; I offer you full freedom in return for full relinquishment. I will give you the ability to remain in a fasted place of sanctification from each person or thing that you yield to me.

If you choose my forever fast, you will no longer be a slave to anything of the enemy or the flesh. Freedom awaits your decision.

John 8:34 Jesus replied, "Truly, truly, I tell you, everyone who sins is a slave to sin."

2 Peter 2:19b NLT For you are a slave to whatever controls you.

Galatians 5:1 GNT Freedom is what we have--Christ has set us free! Stand, then, as free people, and do not allow yourselves to become slaves again

Day 199 "The Book of Mysteries" Jonathan Cahn "The Eucharistia"

We were sitting by the fire at night. The teacher had in his hand a piece of matzah, unleavened bread. He broke off a piece and handed the rest to me. We partook.

"The bread of the Passover, as Messiah gave to His disciples at the Last Supper."

"Communion" I said
 "Which is from the Passover" he said, "and do you know what some call that bread?"
 "The Eucharist" I replied
 "Yes. And do you know where that word comes from? It comes from the Greek word eucharistia. It appears in the scriptures. But it has nothing at all to do with bread."
 "What then?"

"Eucharistia means to give thanks or to say a blessing."

"So why do people think it's the bread?"

"It's what Messiah said over the bread. It's what the Jewish people have said over the bread for ages. It was the the Hebrew blessing known as the Motzi. He said "Baruch Atah Adonai, Elohaynu Melek Ha Olam, ha motzi lechem min ha aretz, which means "Blessed are You, Lord our God, King of the Universe, who brings forth bread from the earth."

So it's not the bread but the blessing of thanks He gave over the bread."

"Yes", said the teacher, "And what does that tell you?"

"That life is not about things."

"Yes it tells you that your life does not consist of objects, but of the blessings you say over them.... The thanks you say over them. You see, it doesn't matter how much or little you have on earth. What matters is how much thanks you give for what you have. The one who is rich in possessions, but poor in thankfulness is in the end poor. But the one who is poor in possessions but rich in giving thanks is, in the end rich. And what was the bread over which Messiah gave thanks?"

"It was the symbol of His suffering and death. Yet He spoke a blessing over it and gave thanks for it. For those who give thanks in all things have the power to turn curses into blessings and sorrows into joy The power of the eucharistia"

The Mission: Seek today not to increase what you have, but to increase your thanks for what you have. Give thanks in all things. The greater your thanksgiving the greater will be your life.

Menangle Rural Fire Service

Our brigade received a brand new CAT 9 Toyota Landcruiser today! This is the first brand new, first hand truck that Menangle Brigade has received.

Our old CAT 9 was 27 years, which did not have air conditioning and lacked present technology and safety standards. The truck has served our brigade well, being handy over the past fire season.

We are delighted as a brigade to have been gifted this new truck. We would like to thank the NSW RFS, our District Office and all those involved, both community and state members.

You can see in the video below both Alan and Michael picked up the new truck today and some members and life member Geoff Hughes also came down to see it roll in.
